Wholesale customer agreement

For a wholesale account buying Bagged Oak from the load zone. This covers 1 cubic foot bags only. It does not cover Stacked Oak.

1. Parties

This agreement is between Stackyard and the business named below. The person who signs is authorized to bind that business.

2. Product

Red and white oak, cut 16–18 inches, packed in 1 cubic foot bags. Each bag contains a mix of the two oaks. Length and color may vary within that range.

3. Logo bags

An order of 1,000 bags includes the business logo on the bag color the business chooses. Send the logo and the color to @josephscottelli on X. There is no smaller cap on the order.

4. Price

$7 per bag. The price does not change with distance. The minimum order is 20 bags, and an order runs up to 1,000. If the bags go to more than one address, mileage is the route from the load zone through each stop and back. A difficult drop — a long carry, a blocked drive, or an extra trip — adds $25.

5. Delivery

Deliveries run Monday through Friday, 8 am to 5 pm. The truck leaves the load zone, delivers to the address on the order, and returns. Mileage is that round trip. A local run, under 15 miles, may share a window. An area run, 15 to 25 miles, fills the window. An extended run, over 25 miles, uses the truck for the full day. The business will have someone available to receive the bags.

6. Payment

Payment is due on delivery unless the order is already paid. Cash is only in central Arkansas, and only when the owner runs the delivery. An affiliate never takes cash. App pay is X Money to @josephscottelli, Venmo to @josephsellott, Cash App to $skillett77, or PayPal to @JosephSElliott. Cards are not accepted. Questions and changes go to Stackyard at @josephscottelli on X. If payment is due and is not received, Stackyard may retain the bags.

7. Changes

Cancel at least 24 hours before the scheduled delivery. Message @josephscottelli on X. A missed delivery is discounted if the customer was not told before the window. After the truck is loaded, the delivery will be completed.
